About Honi Soit newspaper

Honi Soit has been published by the Students' Representative Council, University of Sydney since 1929 and has a proud reputation of being the most vibrant and prestigious student publication in Australia. It has an illustrious alumni of student editors who have gone on to become well known faces in the media and in public life.

Honi Soit is a tabloid sized weekly, produced during semesters (26 editions per year). It has a print run of 2 000 and is distributed free at over 62 locations on Sydney University campuses including main campus, and the Conservatorium of Music. This includes newspaper stands in foyers, cafes, faculty desks and libraries.

Published weekly during semester (2000 copies, 26 editions per year) Tabloid size newspaper, full colour throughout, distributed free.

Target the student market

There are over 45 000 students and nearly 10 000 staff at Sydney University. Honi Soit offers an exciting opportunity for you to capture the undergraduate and postgraduate student markets. University students represent a lucrative potential market: they are high discretionary spenders, and are an important force in the youth market.
