FRESHERS' SPECIAL

To-Day is Freshman's Day.

DON'T FEEL STRANGE OR SHY

ARRANGEMENTS TO MAKE YOU FEEL AT HOME.

Whereas, in previous years, the brunt of the welcome to Freshers has been mainly borne by the Christian Union, the recently-formed and all-powerful Students' Representative Council has decided to establish the first day of Lent Term as Freshman's Day.

To-day senior students will extend themselves in an attempt to make you feel at home. We hope you will be properly grateful!

AT 10 A.M., all freshers must attend the MATRI-CULATION CEREMONY in the UNION HALL. Short addresses will be delivered by the Presidents of the Students' Representative Council (Mr. J. M. Gosper), Undergraduates' Association (Mr. A. G. Smith B.E.), Women Undergraduates' Association (Miss Lorraine Snyder), Sports Union (Mr. Vernon Treat), B.C.L.A. Women's Sports Association (Miss K. Oakes), Christian Union (Mr. Pratt), and Women's Christian Union (Miss Lorraine Wood).

At the conclusion of the speeches (guaranteed to be short), freshers are asked to arrange themselves in groups, according to their Faculties. At intervals around the Hall, notices bearing the names of the Faculties will be displayed. Senior students from every Faculty will then take charge of their respective groups, and conduct them to the various departments, where advice and a short description of the course will be given.

Don't be afraid to ask questions—that is what the senior students will be there for!

At the University Offices an INFORMATION BUREAU has been established. Wise and learned (but not, we hope, too wise or too learned) scholars have been secured after a diligent search. They claim (if honest ones!) ability to read and understand the University Calendar! Ask them to expound its mysteries!

Information concerning fees (those terrible impositions) and courses will be given to all seeking them.

Heed the advice of the seniors! They know, because they have been through the mill.

Manning House (the den of woman students) will stage a bumper welcome in the Assembly Hall at 3 p.m. A musical programme, afternoon tea, a few speeches (to which, Ladies, you need not listen), and a spirit of goodwill to all men—or, we mean women, will be provided. All, including senior students, are invited to turn up and make the function a happy and successful one.

Men Keep Out!

S. R. C.

The Inaugural Council

After the Student Body had unanimously adopted the proposed Constitution of the Student Representative Council in November last, the four subsidiary Associations took no time in electing their representatives.

The Inaugural Council, with consists of twelve representatives and a president, held its first meeting on November 12, and elected office-bearers.

The Council.

President, Mr. J. M. Gosper (S.U.E.A.); vice-presidents, Miss Evonne Wood (S.U.V.C.A.) and Mr. A. D. Edwards, B.A. (E.S.A.); honorary secretary, Mr. J. V. Connolly (S.U.L.A.); honorary treasurer, Mr. A. F. Osborne, B.A., B.E. (E.S.A.); the Messrs. Barbara Pedon (S.U.E.A.), Lorraine Snyder (S.U.V.C.A.), Almie Lennard, B.A. (W.E.S.A.), Alex Dunlop, B.A. (W.E.S.A.), and the Messrs. F. W. Baylton (S.U.V.C.A.), A. G. Smith, B.A. (S.U.E.A.), R. E. Conley (S.U.V.C.A.), and F. S. Flynn (S.U.C.A.).

STUDENTS' HEALTH Will be Safeguarded

As portion of the activities of the new School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine, a medical service and supervision of students will be inaugurated.

Besides caring for the general welfare of students, valuable information will be collected about the general health of young men and women of undergraduate age.

Good health is fine, so is good wine.

(As the S.R.C. Sees It)

A New Era.

Lent Term, 1930, opens to-day with great promise for students of the University of Sydney. Organised into a corporate whole for the first time in its history, the student body has before it a future in which it can, if it will, take its proper place in the life of the Alma Mater.

It had become increasingly evident, during recent years, that there "was something rotten in the State of Denmark." The climax was reached last year, when preparations which would have made the Festival of 1929 one of the best ever produced in Sydney, were brought to an abrupt end. It is not intended to revive thoughts of that fiasco which contained some of the elements of tragedy. Suffice it to say that out of evil has come good.

The Students' Representative Council has been formed, been given official sanction, and commenced its work. Already it has shown that it is endowed with vigorous growth. Through it the student body can, for the first time, speak with one voice. Its constitution is elastic, but provides adequate safeguards. It faces a bright future. With a new dignity, impossible under former conditions, it is now in a position to assert the rights of undergraduates. It must, however, always keep before students the fact that rights and privileges cannot exist without duties. And the primary duty of students is to uphold the dignity of the "Grand old Variety."

Credit for most of the preliminary work in connection with the establishment of the S.R.C. must be accorded to Mr. Murray Gosper, who has been honoured by election as its first president. "Honi S.O.I.T.", however, had no small part in the work. It placed before students all the proposals brought forward, and constantly endeavoured to make sure that, when a decision was reached, it would be the considered decision of a majority of students. Its editorial committee is proud to have been associated with such a movement.

Commencing in humble circumstances as the official journal of the Sydney University Undergraduates' Association, "Honi S.O.I.T." has already known many vicissitudes. It is now the official journal of the Students' Representative Council, and serves all students, of whatever status, within the University of Sydney. Its watchword is service. In the past it has not hesitated to criticise, where it has thought criticism necessary, and that will continue to be its policy—not criticism for the sake of criticism; not destruction, but construction.

This issue is mainly addressed to Freshers. In it, we have sought to give as much information for their guidance as possible. Elsewhere will be found words of welcome and advice from the leaders of each of the four associations which comprise the organisation of the S.R.C.—namely, the Undergraduates' Association, the Women Undergraduates' Association, the Evening Students' Association and the Women Evening Students' Association—and from the President of the S.R.C. "Honi S.O.I.T." would like to add its own greetings. We hope they will become regular readers—as every other student is. It will keep before them the claims of community life, and the great traditions of the "Variety." It will always be abreast of the times, and they can expect to find within its pages all the latest news. They should always remember that it is the students' journal, to defend them, to protect their interests, to protest, when protest is called for, and to express their views on all subjects.

"Honi S.O.I.T." hopes to have many developments, of vital importance to the student body, to chronicle during the present year. The Students' Representative Council has to build itself a home. (A fete is hinted at as the means of raising funds for that purpose). Its relations with the authorities have to be defined. There are a thousand and one things to do. And, let us stress, nothing can be achieved without the whole-hearted support of all students.

A HOME FOR THE S.R.C.

Although plans have yet to assume concrete form, the idea of a home for the Students' Representative Council is already agitating the minds of members.

Application will be made shortly for the site of the Geology Department and the Union, and, should the University approve of the scheme, it is proposed to construct a gatehouse between the two buildings, immediately above the Union steps.

If another scheme which has been suggested comes to fruition, the position of the proposed building will be ideal. The possibility of removing Manning House into the Geology wing is now being freely discussed. In the event of a decision along those lines, the S.R.C. offices would be bounded on the one side by the headquarters of the men, and, on the other, by the headquarters of the women students.

In addition to taking the place of a gatehouse, the proposed S.R.C. building would, under the scheme propounded, be superimposed on the small quadrangle between the Union and the Geology Department, providing a shelter during rain for students entering the grounds by the Union steps. A covered way would then be provided from the Union steps to the Great Hall. Moreover, the building would complete the quadrangle at that point.

Funds are the main consideration. But the movement should be accorded the fullest support of students and staff alike, and sufficient funds should not be lacking when the time comes to proceed with the building.

Students' Representative Council

Secretary Appointed

At the last meeting of the Students' Representative Council, Mr. Charles G. Hill, A.C.L.S., A.A.A., was appointed general secretary.

Charles G. Hill.

Mr. Hill has, for the past four years, been secretary of the Sydney University Sports Union. Educated at the Sydney Grammar School, where he had a brilliant sporting record, "Charlie" Hill as he is popularly known in "Varsity" sporting circles, served throughout the Great War, and was wounded whilst fighting on the Russian Front, after having won the Cross of St. George. A capable organiser, he is determined to put the Student self-governing body on a sound business basis.

Council Offices.

The new offices of the Students' Representative Council are situated at the Union end of the Botany School, under the same roof as the Sports Union offices.

All communications must be addressed to Mr. C. G. Hill, Secretary, Students' Representative Council, Council Offices, the University of Sydney; Telephone, MV 1559.

TALKIES AT LAST

Film Society's Achievement

Members of the Film Society attended a private screening of the part-talking picture, "The Bellamy Trial," in the Union Hall last week. For many months the society has been engaged on the work of perfecting its talkie apparatus, and the performance last week reflected great credit on this band of pioneers, which consists mainly of engineering students. The synchronisation was perfect.

Many Sydney firms have shown their faith in the students by lending them apparatus to the total value of nearly £500. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Ltd. has agreed to supply the society with films.

By the middle of first term, the society hopes to screen all-talking programmes.

Vice-Chancellor's Message

To Freshers:—

"I shall have an opportunity of addressing you at the Ceremony of Matriculation on March 26, but I am glad to accept the invitation of the Editor of "Honi S.O.I.T." to extend to you, at the opening of term, a cordial welcome into our midst. I hope you will speedily feel quite at home, as I am sure you will, and that you will enjoy the University life.

"The best advice I can give you is to enter whole-heartedly into all the activities of the University, its sports, its Societies, and to make the very best of the few short years of your intermediate course. For the non-students, I should call attention to the attractions of the University Regiment. "It may not be amiss to remind you that the larger freedom which a University confers on its students, as compared with the schools, carries with it its own responsibilities and obligations.

"The good name of the University is now in your keeping, and I have every confidence that it will be safe there."

R. S. WALLACE, Vice-Chancellor.

A Date to Remember May 22

To future students this date will be to the University as July 4 is to our American cousins.

On this night will be held the "Undergrad's Ball," so dear to trippers of the "Night fantastic."

As members of the Students' Council are expert exponents of the "Varsity Drag, dancing will be from 8 p.m. to 2 a.m., an increase on one hour on previous years.

The Palais Royal once again will house the contestants.

Should Attendance at Lectures Be Compulsory

In view of the recent discovery of a lie-detector which "winnows the false from the true," and the probable invention of an instrument which will automatically notify professors when John Smith answers for Fred Brown, it is to be hoped the removal of the compulsory lecture system will render it unnecessary for students to tell lies.

It is only because of these recent discoveries that we take this stand, for the unhappy student will be fighting unarmourable odds when a faked signature or an act of husky ventriloquism, covering the absence of many an undergrad, is registered as false on the small lie-detector carried by the professor in his waistcoat pocket.

Compulsory attendance, then, should forthwith be abolished, and students left to their own devices and consciences as at Oxford and other centres of learning.

If any of our readers has another, and more forcible, reason for this abolition, we will be only too willing to ventilate his views on this important subject.

The Inaugural President
Of the S.R.C.

With "Honi Soit" now issued under the aegis of the Student Council for the first time, it is not inappropriate to introduce to freshmen the President of the first and existing Council, Mr. Murray Gosper.

The President's career within the University has been one of varied interests and far-reaching activities in sporting and social life.

In sport he holds four Rifle Shooting "Blues" at St. Andrew's College, University, Australian Universities' and Imperial Universities'. He is also joint holder with W. R. J. Anderson (Western Australia) of the Australian Universities' record of 142 out of a possible 150, for the first days' shoot (over 300, 500 and 600 yards) of the Inter-Varsity match. With a "possible" at 600 yards, Mr. Gosper is also a joint holder of the inter-University record for this range. In rowing he has represented the Faculty of Engineering and also St. Andrew's College in the Challenge Eight's Regatta. A distance runner, Mr. Gosper represented the University in inter-club athletics for the "Wallace Cup" in 1926.

The President's record on the social side of Varsity life is so lengthy as to need tabulation:—

AN OPEN LETTER TO FRESHMEN.

Do you realise that you have a unique opportunity? Your position is different from that of any freshman who has preceded you: you have a definite advantage over every freshman who will succeed you.

A new era commences with Lent Term, 1930. Hitherto students of the University of Sydney have been organised only in sections. United action in any direction was practically impossible. The student body was not making full use of its opportunities, and failed to take its proper place in the corporate life of the University.

The year 1929 was a black one for students. But out of the melting pot has emerged a new body, representative of every student within the University, recognised by the authorities, and with the means of advancing to a position of power and esteem which will challenge comparison. And you have the opportunity of taking a substantial part in its progress.

When you enrol as students of the University, you will find that payment of membership fees for the Students' Representative Council is compulsory. But we do not desire you to think of your membership as compulsory in any way. By your association with the organised student body, you are in touch with every student development within the University. Indeed, you belong to the Varsity in a much more intimate way because of your membership of the S.R.C. The community life of the University becomes your life. You are an enfranchised citizen of the student republic, with a voice in its government, and in the framing of its policy. You will have rights and

AND OTHER THINGS

Nellie Boucher, who has just completed her final year in Arts, now wears a white-gold ring next to her beautiful Rhodi Wager engagement ring. She was married during vacation to Arthur Robb, at St. Andrew's, Summer Hill and will shortly commence domestic duties in Griffith, where Arthur potter-round spraying fruit-trees. We wish them the best of luck—and good crops.

Kathleen Doyle, who graduated B.Sc. last year, has announced her engagement to Roy S. Lee, Vice-warden, St. John's College, Morpeth. She was a well-known member of the Christian Union, and at one time edited the Science Journal during her undergraduate course. Until the happy day, she is teaching at Southport, Queensland.

There must be something in Economics after all! At least Dorothy Pearson and A. C. Gray, who took lectures together last year, think so, for their engagement was recently announced. We wish them the best of success in putting their theories into practice. Incidentally we have also heard there is a great rush on Economics IV, this coming year.

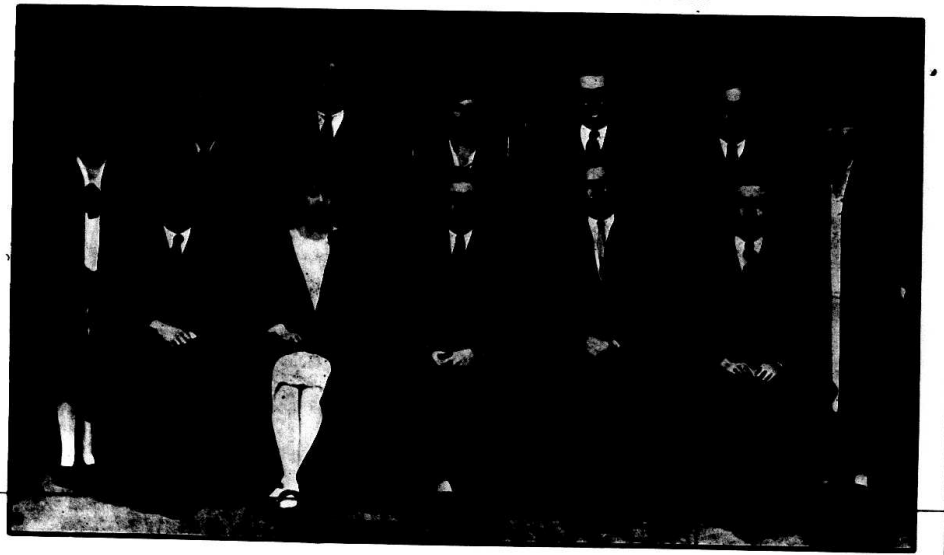

Aimée Lennard, last year's President of the W.E.S.A., is unfortunately absent from University activities this year. She has recently taken up onerous duties at Borowra Public School, and

LEGENDS

(Bad-time Stories Like Mother Used to Tell.)

There was once a student who thought "Commen" was a solemn ceremony in the Great Hall.

A wise Commissioner of Police, we are told, once decided to give all ranks a holiday on the day set apart for the Undergrads' Procession.

A Town Hall organ was once treated to a meal of flour. Thereafter its tone was much improved.

It is chronicled that, at the end of one financial year (which must, for obvious reasons, remain unspecified) the Varsity accounts showed a credit balance. The following year fees were substantially reduced (note by Printer's devil—"Garn, you can't put that over even undergrads.")

There was once a woman student who just simply hated the thought of attending "Jimmy" Bruce's lectures.

A student once decided that the French standard of the Sydney University was too low—and went elsewhere.

On hearing the word "post," a graduate once asked its meaning.

An ex-"treaser" once bequeathed all his estate to the Med. School.

A "gin-sling" was originally a sling worn by an aboriginal woman with a fractured leg. Hence the absence of "kick."

APRIL 3

Election Day

FOR FACULTY COMMITTEE

Under the new constitution of the Sydney University Undergraduates' Association, which was adopted by a special general meeting of day male students on November 1, 1929, the election of Faculty Committees will take place on April 3.

The constitution states: "Faculty Committees shall consist of representatives from each year and such Executive officers as the Faculties may from time to time decide."

It is suggested by the S.U.U.A. that the Executive officers comprise a president, a vice-president, an honorary secretary and an honorary treasurer.

It will be necessary for the students in each Faculty to pass, at a general meeting, a resolution fixing the number of Executive officers. As each Faculty is entitled to one representative on the Committee of the S.U.U.A., it will also be necessary to appoint that representative.

A proposal has been made that the Faculty Representative be the president.

As nominations for the Faculty Committees, which must be signed by at least two members of the Faculty or year concerned, open on Friday, March 22, general meetings will be held in each Faculty this week, under the auspices of the S.U.U.A.

Nominations close with the secretary S.U.U.A. at 6 p.m. on Friday, March 28.

A complete list of candidates will be published in "Honi Soit" on Wednesday, April 2, together with full instructions regarding polling.

mittee, Secretary, Vice-President, and President.

Engineering Undergrad. Association—Secretary and Vice-President.

Union Board—member for three years.

Such activities doubtless played no small part in influencing his outlook and developing in him the desire to create a united body out of the various definite groups which were so long in existence. To break down the antagonisms of these bodies and to gain their goodwill and support in a scheme of reorganisation was regarded as well-nigh impossible. The long and weary negotiations of delegates, watchful of their particular interests, and suspicious of any alienation of their hard won privileges, often came near to wrecking the scheme. That all four Associations finally did agree to form a Student Council was mainly due to the personality and temperament of Mr. Gosper. He probably will never be convinced that this is so, but all delegates are sure of it.

The Council, when formed, paid Mr. Gosper the honour and tribute due to his work and his efforts by electing him to his present office as first President of the S.R.C. In the years to come, there will be Presidents who will reach his level as a man, a student and a gentleman; none shall do him in being worthier of that, the highest office within the student body of Sydney University.

privileges, and public duties. The payment of a membership fee is merely one of the latter. Payment of taxes is compulsory in any organised State, is it not?

You will have representation on the Council through the various subsidiary bodies. If you are a day male student, you will be primarily a member of the Undergraduates' Association. If a day woman student, a member of the Women Undergraduates' Association. For evening students there are the Evening Students' Association and the Women Evening Students' Association. The full organisation of the student body is explained in detail in another column.

This year is the crucial period. By its success or failure this year will the Council's worth as a working constitution be judged. It is as new to senior students as it is to yourselves, and you are just as much responsible for its success or failure. If you enter into ality hitherto unknown, provided it speaks truly for every one of its three thousand members.

Problems which will arise for you as individuals will, of course, have to be solved, for the most part, unaided.

You have come to the University primarily for the purpose of study, and of obtaining a degree. Speaking generally, the Council will not be able to assist you to those ends. But, if you go down with nothing more than a scholastic degree, you will have missed the best in University education. The Council can help you to enjoy that community atmosphere which is one of the best things a University can offer.

Allow us, in conclusion, to wish you every success in your studies. Be sure that a very hearty welcome awaits you here.

Yours fraternally,
"HONI SOIT"

although we are not quite certain where Borowra is, we hope it is not too far away for Aimée to loose touch with the W.E.S.A.—or for the W.E.S.A. to loose touch with Aimée.

Eme Facey, B.Sc., who has been a member of the "Hooper" committee for some time, was married quietly during the vacation to Lieutenant Max Delbridge. It is to be hoped Eme will still find time to associate herself with University activities, as she has held various positions since her graduation in 1926.

On Saturday, February 22, at St. Marks, Darling Point, Miss Lucy Russell King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. King, of Rose Bay, was married to Mr. Charles Holden Wood.

Charlie Wood is doing Final Year Medicine and for several years represented both Andrew's and the Varsity in Rifle Shooting.

A large bridge party drive is being organised by the Ladies' Committee of the University Boat Club for Tuesday afternoon, March 25. Dendey-y-y-y Restaurant and amuse at David Jones'. Engage tables with Miss F. Coyle (F.M. 4387).

May Small and her sister Winifred are back in Sydney after two years' absence abroad. They toured Italy, France and Switzerland, made an interesting trip to Norway, and spent some time motoring in England and Scotland, where they came across a number of Sydney graduates.

Professor W. H. Davies, the new Professor of Physiology, in "The Varsity's" most eligible bachelor! And no misapprehension. Fellow passengers on the Orford tell how the fair sex were attracted by him. "Jolly good company, too; we like his twinkling blue eyes," they added.

SENATE APPROVES

S.R.C. Constitution

By its action on December 2, 1929, in approving the Constitution of the Students' Representative Council, the Senate brought to a successful conclusion the efforts of students to re-organize.

Not only have the authorities agreed with the suggestion that membership of the new organisation should be COMPULSORY, but they have undertaken to collect subscriptions from every student.

Although Sydney is the oldest university in the Southern Hemisphere, it is one of the last to adopt compulsory membership for its student organization. Compulsory membership is enforced at Western Australia, Queensland, and Melbourne, as well as in several South African and American universities. In Scotland the ideal system exists, from the student's point of view, the various students' representative councils being subsidised by the University out of general revenue.

The Constitution.

1. THE STUDENT BODY AND THE ASSOCIATIONS.

The Student Body of the University shall consist of the whole number of students matriculated or unmatriculated, who are duly enrolled for attendance at lectures, and pay the annual fee for membership of the Student Body.

The Student Body shall comprise the Sydney University Undergraduates' Association, the Sydney University Women Undergraduates' Association, the Sydney University Evening Students' Association, and the Sydney University Women Evening Students' Association.

Membership of the Student Body shall entitle a student to membership of the appropriate Association.

2. THE COUNCIL.

The Sydney University Students' Representative Council shall be composed of representatives of each Association, together with a President chosen by the representatives, and with such persons, if any, as the Council may appoint to be ex-officio members of the Council.

Until the President is chosen, the Council shall consist of the representatives. The Council may proceed to the despatch of business, notwithstanding the failure of any Association to provide for its representation in the Council.

The Council shall, before proceeding to the despatch of any other business, choose a person to be the President. The Council shall meet once at least in every month during Term.

The presence of at least 50 per cent. of representatives eligible to be present shall be necessary to constitute a meeting of the Council for the exercise of its powers.

Questions arising in the Council shall be determined by a majority of votes other than those of the President and of any ex-officio members. If the votes are equal, the question shall pass in the negative.

The President, representatives, and ex-officio members shall hold office until the first meeting of the Council after the representatives for the next year are chosen.

An ex-officio member shall cease to be a member of the Council if he ceases to hold the office in virtue of which he was appointed.

3. REPRESENTATIVES.

Each Association may choose two representatives, and where the number of members enrolled in any Association exceeds five hundred, that Association may choose additional representatives as follows: The excess shall be divided by five hundred, as a quota, and for every quota or part thereof an additional representative may be chosen.

Representatives of an Association shall be chosen by its Committee, unless the Association otherwise decides.

Representatives of each Association shall be chosen within one month after the commencement of lectures in Lent Term of each year.

Where the place of a representative becomes vacant before the expiration of his term of service, a representative to fill the vacant place shall be chosen within one month after the place becomes vacant.

4. THE PRESIDENT AND OTHER OFFICERS.

The officers of the Council shall be the President, two Vice-Presidents, an Honorary Secretary, and an Honorary Treasurer.

The officers shall be chosen by the Council at its first meeting after the representatives are chosen in each year or as soon thereafter as may be practicable.

The President may be chosen from the representatives, Student Body, graduates, or past members of the University. The other officers shall be chosen from the representatives. Of the two Vice-Presidents, one shall be chosen from the men representatives, and one from the women representatives.

If the President is chosen from the representatives his place as a representative shall become vacant. Before or during the absence of the President the Council may choose a person to perform his duties in his absence.

Any officer may be removed from office by a vote of the Council. As often as any office becomes vacant, the Council shall fill the vacancy.

5. OBJECTS AND FUNCTIONS.

The objects of the Council shall be to promote the interests and maintain the traditions of the University and of the Student Body.

The Council shall represent the Student Body and conduct the affairs thereof.

6. POWERS.

The Council shall have power to do all such things as may be incidental, conducive to the attainment of any of its objects, and in particular:—

- (a) to summon and conduct a general meeting of the Student Body;
(b) to submit a proposal or question to the Student Body, or to any Association, and to take a vote thereon in such manner as the Council thinks proper;
(c) to make representations to the University authorities on behalf of the Student Body or of any Association;
(d) to publish or authorize the publication of any magazine, newspaper, or printed matter on behalf of the Student Body;
(e) to inquire into any act of any student which appears to the Council to be prejudicial to the University or to the Student Body, and to take such measures with respect to the matter as the Council, subject to the approval of the Vice-Chancellor, may determine;
(f) to delegate to a sub-committee any matter for investigation and report;
(g) to prescribe the duties of any officer of the Council;
(h) to enter into and make agreements, and to employ persons on such terms as the Council deems proper;
(i) to acquire manage deal with and dispose of any property;
(j) to invest any moneys in any investment in which trustees are authorized by law to invest, and to vary and realize any investment;
(k) to borrow money and to give security over any property of the Council;
(l) to make regulations, not inconsistent with this Constitution, prescribing any matters necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to this Constitution.

7. ACCOUNTS.

The Council shall keep proper account of property of the Council and of all moneys received and expended by the Council, and cause the accounts to be audited once at least every year.

8. ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STUDENT BODY.

The Council shall summon a general meeting of the Student Body within one month after the commencement of lectures in Lent Term of each year and shall submit thereat the Annual Report of the Council, the Statement of Accounts, and Balance Sheet.

9. MEMBERSHIP FEE.

The annual fee for membership of the Student Body shall be five shillings and shall be paid by every student to the Council through the Registrar of the University at or before a date to be fixed by the Registrar. Out of the fees received by the Council from the Registrar, the Council shall pay to each Association an amount equal to two shillings in the respect of each member enrolled in the Association.

10. OPERATION OF CONSTITUTION.

This constitution and all regulations and decisions made by the Council under this constitution shall be binding on an Association.

11. ALTERATION OF THE CONSTITUTION.

This Constitution shall not be altered unless the proposed alteration is submitted by the Council to the Student Body either at a general meeting or by way of referendum, and is approved by two-thirds of the members voting on the question.

The Council shall give at least fourteen days' notice of its intention to submit the proposed alteration.

If you want us to print your letters, at least send them in good English. Write legibly and do not insist on being corrected on a page that is too short to allow of a margin of one or two columns in length, and containing only a few lines of copy.

Contributors are advised that we are unable to handle copy satisfactorily unless it is written in the first person. The Editor's pen is to be found in the Union Exchange.

Advertising Corner

"Honi Soit" is the official Journal of the Students' Representative Council. Nevertheless its aim is to become self-supporting. It can only do that if it sells a payable amount of advertisement...

Advertisements from the point of view of the advertiser, is a business proposition. It must bring results. And, if advertisers, it must be able to assure them results.

Many firms have rallied to our aid. Many more promise to follow—if they are satisfied that advertising in our journal is a business proposition. We cannot expect firms to make a donation...

We would like to assure our readers of our faith in advertisers. Every advertisement must appeal to some section of our thousands of readers. A purchase on the strength of an advertisement in "Honi Soit" can never disappoint. Advertisers have shown their belief in us by advertising; we show our belief in them by recommending their services.

These columns are also open to you. For two lines, 3/6 for an inch of space will bring you the relief from all worldly worries and set you upon prosperity's path.

And there was that absent-minded professor who dropped a pipe in his pants pocket and put his hand in the lecturer's hat, dismissed his class and went to his very inefficient attorney for a home home, neglected attorney for a home home, neglected the maid, and said good afternoon to his wife. ... But perhaps he wasn't so very absent-minded, after all.
